FIELD POSITION AVAILABLE

HALEAKALĀ NATIONAL PARK

Critical need position open immediately at Haleakalā National Park, Resources Management Division to control populations of the introduced Western Yellowjacket. Work includes but is not limited to, yellowjacket nest searches, setting and servicing yellowjacket traps, and applying pesticides. The majority of time is spent outdoors at elevations between 6500’ – 10,000’, where weather conditions can range from sunny and hot to rainy with freezing temperatures. Applicants must be able to hike up to 12 miles a day on uneven mountainous terrain carrying a 35 lb. pack. Work requires staying in remote backcountry locations for up to three nights per week.

Duration: 30 days, with possible 30 day renewal (starting in September 2006)

Pay: GS-5 level

Contact: Cathleen Bailey, (808) 572-4491, Cathleen_Bailey@nps.gov or
Raina Kaholoa'a, (808) 572-4499, Raina_Kaholoaa@nps.gov