POSITION: PLANNER

The State of Hawaii Division of Forestry and Wildlife is currently advertising for a position, located on Oahu, to administratively manage its Watershed Partnerships Program. There are nine statewide Watershed Partnerships, which are voluntary alliances of public and private landowners dedicated to mauka forested watershed conservation. Major responsibilities related to the position include managing the program's budget (including a grant program), development of internal policies and procedures, processing regulatory compliance related to projects, project planning administration, and outreach. The position title is “PLANNER IV (NATURAL RESOURCES) (SR-22)” and it is continuous recruitment until the position is filled. Application information can be found at the State’s Department of Human Resources Development website: http://hawaii.gov/hrd/main/esd/howto/.
