Subject: Register for the Kaua`i Conservation Conference

Aloha Kakou,

It's time to register for the upcoming Kaua`i Conservation Conference on Friday, April 11 at the Kaua`i Community College Performing Arts Center! You will find schedule information on the form and will receive additional information upon submission or request. This form also allows you to sign up for the events on Saturday, April 12.

There are two attachments to provide several options for registration.

1. A word document with fillable text boxes, which you can then save and send back via email.
2. A PDF document (some people may have the software to enter directly into this form), or

You can also print either file and...

- * fill out, scan, and send via email
- * fill out and fax, or
- * fill out and send via mail

All contact information is provided on the form.
REGISTRATION DEADLINE: FRIDAY, MARCH 28, 2008

We are really looking forward to this upcoming community event dedicated to Kaua'i's unique environment! It will host a variety of discussion topics, amazing speakers, opportunities to network and raise public awareness. Please note that all events are FREE and lunch is provided on Friday to all registered conference participants.

We hope to see you there!

Mahalo,

2008 Kaua'i Conservation Conference steering committee
