Navigating Change and Aloha ‘Āina

A Workshop for Educators in Celebration of the International Year of the Reef

What: A workshop for Grades 4, 5, and 7 educators

Where: Moku o Lo‘e (Coconut Island) Hawai‘i Institute of Marine Biology

When: June 12, 2008

Workshops will provide teachers:
• Updated standards-based educational materials that focus on the marine environment and integrate Hawaiian culture with science, math, and language arts (Grades 4-5 Navigating Change and Grade 7 Aloha ‘Āina)
• A teacher’s guide with lesson plans, student activity sheets, rubrics, CDs, a DVD, and other resources
• Hands-on sessions to try the activities with other educators
• A preview of field sites on Moku o Lo‘e
• Lunch

Registration Deadline: May 30, 2008

For more information, contact the Pacific American Foundation at (808) 263-0081 or email Maura O’Connor at mauroac@hawaii.rr.com. Space is limited, so register early.

Name _____________________________________________ Home Phone _________________

Address ________________________________________________________________________________

E-mail _____________________________________________ ______________________________

School ___________________________________________________________ Grade Level ____

The $20 registration fee includes a complete teacher’s guide, training and lunch. To register, complete this form or download an application at www.thepaf.org and mail it with the registration fee to: The Pacific American Foundation • 629 Kailua Road, Room 207 • Kailua, HI 96734. A confirmation letter with workshop details will be sent to all registered participants.

Workshop Partners
Hawai‘i Institute of Marine Biology
Aloha ‘Āina – Pacific American Foundation
Hawaiian Islands Humpback Whale National Marine Sanctuary
NOAA Marine Debris Program
Hawai‘i Department of Education – Hawaiian Studies & Language Program Services and Environmental Education and Service Learning

Mahalo nui loa to our funding agencies: Tesoro Hawai‘i and the Atherton Family Foundation