AVICULTURE INTERNS MAUI- for the Hawaii Endangered Bird Conservation Program at the Maui Bird Conservation Center (MBCC) on the island of Maui. Daily tasks include husbandry duties such as: diet preparation, aviary and facility maintenance, behavioral observations of breeding birds, grounds keeping, predator control.

Applicant must be able to live with several roommates in a remote area and should show enthusiasm for work with captive endangered Hawaiian birds. Applicant must have a valid driver's license and health insurance. Internships last for a 3-6 month period. Interns receive $20/day stipend plus housing.

For more information on internships at KBCC, please send a resume, cover letter and the names and contacts of three references to: Amy Poopatanapong 2375 Olinda Road Makawao, HI 96768 or fax: 808-572-3574