

YWCA – Camp Sloggett (<http://www.campingkauai.com/>) in Kokee State Park is providing free lodging for all volunteers Thursday – Saturday nights (October 2-4) with workdays on October 3-5. They will be having a imu pit and roast a pig with all kind of local grinds for dinner Saturday night. Kanikapila around the historic firepit. Please join them for as much or as little time that you can spare.

The YWCA is inviting the community to enjoy free accommodations and the spirit of ohana and partnership in Koke`e, while helping them maintain and improve the camp grounds through the removal of invasive plants. They are seeking party volunteers and asking that you bring your own tools for overgrowth removal efforts.

You can sleep under the stars, or in your tent, the Weinberg Bunkhouse, or the Sloggett Lodge. Families are welcomed – all ages and abilities. Contact site manager, Erik Coopersmith with any questions: 335-0710.
