

H A W A I I N A T U R E
C E N T E R P R E S E N T S

WATER EDUCATION for TEACHERS
FREE WORKSHOP

The Hawaii Nature Center in 'Iao Valley, Maui is offering a one day workshop, open to K-12 teachers.

Project WILD Aquatic:
November 8, 2008

Time: 9:00 am to 3:00pm with working lunch provided

Guest Speakers:

Tom Cummings, of the Bishop Museum, Oahu
Eden Koljord, Project WILD facilitator

plus special presentations by Environmental Educators from the Nature Center...

Experience a watershed education in the middle of one of Maui's most incredible watersheds at the Hawaii Nature Center 'Iao Valley. Participants will gain valuable skills for environmental education in the classroom, while learning hands on water education activities and enjoying the beautiful 'Iao Valley for the day.

Space is limited so please R.S.V.P. to Denby Freeland-Cole, at 808-280-0415, or email Denby@hawaiinaturecenter.org

Supported by the Atherton Family Foundation, State of Hawaii Department of Health Safe Drinking Water Branch and NOAA BWET funding.
www.HawaiiNatureCenter.org