

Hi`ipaka LLC dba Waimea Valley

Conservation Technician (Full Time)

Hi`ipaka LLC dba Waimea Valley seeks an individual responsible for the investigation, study, and maintenance of the ecological resources and ecosystems in Waimea Valley and for the care and maintenance of the natural resources and botanical gardens in Waimea Valley. Must be able to read site maps and landscape plans; be knowledgeable about conservation issues and practices. Must have working knowledge regarding the propagation, selection, planting, maintenance documentation, labeling and mapping of botanical collections. Must have a degree in Environmental Science, Resource Management or related field. Must have a minimum of one-year work experience in land resource management, in conservation field related to native forestry and native ecosystems. Prior experience with Hawaii conservation issues and knowledge of the use of GPS and GIS preferred and obtain a Hawaii State Hunters License within 2 months of employment.

Benefits:

Excellent benefits including health, dental, drug & vision, 401k, Vacations, etc.

If interested please submit resume by Friday, March 18, 2011 to:

Human Resources Manager
59-864 Kamehameha Hwy.
Haleiwa, HI 96712