

Wanted Herbicide/Field Technician. Assist in land management, reforestation, controlling non-native plants through mechanical and chemical control. Familiarity with construction and maintenance of fence lines, trails and roads. Desirable skills: Safe herbicide handling and application, restricted use chemical certification, able to maintain and operate small engine equipment. Knowledge of Hawaiian history, culture, native plants, wildlife, and mountain areas on Maui. Applicants must be physically fit with a positive attitude and can work well with a group or alone. Part-time and intermittent employment must be flexible to field schedule and able to camp in remote areas for up to one week. At least two years of experience working in natural areas or in the professional landscape field desirable. Continuation of employment is dependent upon program/operational needs satisfactory work performance, and availability of funds. Submit resume or letter of interest to auwahi@yahoo.com.