

Naturalists

The Star of Honolulu is now accepting applications for their 2012 Whale Watch cruises. Naturalists should have excellent public speaking skills and be comfortable speaking about humpback whales in front of groups of up to 200 people. During the cruise, naturalists will provide commentary about the island of Oahu, humpback whales and other marine life encountered. A background in marine biology is preferred but not required. Must be customer service oriented and team player. Additional duties include maintaining vessel appearance, cleanliness & safety and pre-/post-cruise set-up and clean-up. Part time seasonal work/salary commensurate with experience. Please list all related work, education and volunteer experience when applying. Please send resume with salary history and references to:
