

Aloha~please mark your calendars and join US! Oct. 3, 7pm, Pukalani, Tavares Pool Room

Upcountry Sustainability is proud to present:

INVASIVE SPECIES ? SUSTAINABILITY PRESENTATIONS
Concerning ~Bees, Deer, Plants, & Veggies

More Info Invasive Species As A Sustainability Concern

Upcountry Sustainability hosts an evening of presentations on invasive species on Maui: PRESENT & FUTURE THREATS

On October 3, at 7 pm, at the Multi-purpose Poolroom at the Tavares Community Center in Pukalani (across from Foodland), the public is invited to the US monthly meeting.

INVASIVE SPECIES PRESENTERS:

~ LISSA FOX, of Maui Invasive Species Committee, speaking on Miconia, Strawberry Guava, Ohia Rust and the Little Fire Ant

~ MARK & LEAH DAMON, of Maui Bee Farm, speaking on present and feared threats to feral and managed honeybees

~ ANNE GACHUHI, of the Home Gardening Support Network, speaking on 5 major insect pests of vegetables

~ LOKAHI SYLVA, of Maui Deer Culling, LLC and PHYLLIS ROBINSON, Board of Water Supply Chair, speaking on Axis Deer

The event is free. Questions are welcome. For further information, call 573-9260.