Te Ipukarea Society – Cook Islands

Vacancies:

1. Marine Park Project Manager
2. Communications Coordinator

Marine Park Project Manager

Te Ipukarea Society (TIS) is a non-profit, membership-based environment organisation. TIS core functions are biodiversity conservation, ecologically sustainable development, waste management, greening the economy, and environmental education of youth. TIS has been given the directive to manage a marine park project on behalf of the Cook Islands Marine Park Steering Committee and are in need of a Marine Park Manager to co-ordinate marine park activities within this project.

Applicants must have:

- A tertiary qualification in the field of marine conservation and biodiversity management preferably at a post-graduate level, or exceptional relevant experience.
- Experience managing staff and consultants.
- Project management experience.
- Excellent time management and reporting skills.
- Demonstrated fundraising ability.
- Advanced conflict resolution skills.
- Excellent relationship management skills.
- Demonstrate awareness of Cook Islands culture.

- For a full position description and application visit www.teipukareasociety.com.

Interested applicants should address selection criteria in their covering letter and attach their CV to tis.cookislands@gmail.com.

Applications close 03 April 2013.
Communications Coordinator

Te Ipukarea Society (TIS) is a non-profit, membership-based environment organisation. TIS core functions are biodiversity conservation, ecologically sustainable development, waste management, greening the economy, and environmental education of youth. TIS has been given the directive to manage a Marine Park project on behalf of the Cook Islands Marine Park Steering Committee and are in need of a Communications Coordinator to develop and implement the CIMP Communications Strategy.

Applicants must have:
- A relevant tertiary qualification, or exceptional relevant experience
- Excellent verbal and written communication skills
- Proven research ability
- Established regional/global media networks
- Reporting skills and database management
- Excellent relationship management skills
- Extensive public relations and media engagement experience
- Experience facilitating press conferences, meetings and workshops
- Advanced social media knowledge
- Experience maintaining websites
- Demonstrate awareness of Cook Islands culture and customs

For a full position description and application details at www.teipukareasociety.com.

Interested applicants should address selection criteria in their covering letter and attach their CV to tis.cookislands@gmail.com.

Applications close 03 April 2013.